IN MEMORIAM

Ferguson: In loving memory of my husband and our dad, Curtis R. Ferguson, who left us nine years ago, Aug. 6, 1961.

It's so lonely here without you
And so sad along life's way.
Life does not seem the same
Since you went away.
Others may think we've forgotten,
When at times they see us smile,
But they little know the heartache
Our smiles hide all the while.
Sadly missed by wife and children. 8/6/1t

DECLARE THE DOCTRINES OF GRACE

Nursery Open For All Services

AN URGENT INVITATION

Because of the growing Armenian Theology of our day, the need for this meeting of Calvinistic Baptist is greater than ever! The ranks of us who believe the Doctrines of Grace have been thinned. A time of fellowship and encouragement would be very profitable. We trust that this will be only the first of many annual get-togethers. We extend to you a warm invitation to be with us in this conference.

Earnie W. Lucas, Pastor

ABOUT OUR SPEAKERS

Elmer Cates

Brother Elmer Cates is located in Greensboro, North Carolina and is the pastor of a fine Baptist Church. Brother Cates is a very humble man and yet a "Defender of the Faith".

C. O. Jackson, Jr.

Brother Jackson is President of the Texas College of Theology and pastor of the Greenwood Baptist Church, Pasadena, Texas. His church, in this suburb of Houston, is composed of the cleanest-living people to be found anywhere, according to the late Dr. Peter Connolly.

Gary Roper

His church was organized by himself eleven years ago with 36 people in a rented property. They now have property that is valued over $250,000.

This year they probably will be contributing approximately $15,000 to missions and Sunday School attendance is approximately 150; 125 on Sunday nights and 100 on Wednesday nights. Their offerings this year are expected to be approximately $50,000.

Mr. Roper has preached in 12 states and 3 foreign countries. Recently he was guest speaker at the Spurgeon's Metropolitan Tabernable in London, England.

Bob L. Ross is Director of Pilgrim Publications, editor of "The Christian Pilgrim", author of the book, "Cambellism; Its History and Heresies", and a teacher at the Texas College of Theology.

Harold W. Carey for many years has had a firm stand for the cause of God and truth. He is pastor of the Neuse Baptist Church which is just outside Raleigh, North Carolina. This "country" church, which averages around 400 in Sunday School, gives over $25,000 per year to missions through the Faith-Promise Plan.
